

TATTOO SERIES #1, BATCH 2

GRAPE BRANDY FINISHED IN EX-BOURBON CASKS

504 BOTTLES
NO ADDITIVES
CASK-STRENGTH
UNFILTERED

This blend of four 26-35 year old single casks has been traditionally aged in Gascony oak barrels. It is then finished in Weller bourbon casks, therefore losing its Armagnac appellation of origin.

The labels feature a hand-selected tattoo artist known for their celebrated designs and artistry.

Tattoo Series #1, Batch 2 is comprised of the following single casks:

Domaine Bellair 1989
Domaine Del Cassou 1985
Domaine Lassalle 1992
Domaine Del Cassou 1993
Domaine Del Cassou 1994

These casks have been individually finished for 3-6 months in barrels that previously held Weller bourbon. They are then blended and allowed to settle in an Armagnac cask for 4 months prior to bottling.

L'ENCANTADA

Based in Vic-Fezensac, Southern France, L'Encantada curates Armagnac selections based on "authenticity, tradition and know-how." The producers for their independent bottlings distill directly in the heart of their fields, with a mobile Alembic Armagnacais still. Their cellarmaster's selections are "barrel raw" – neither their color nor their alcohol content are modified. L'Encantada has quickly made a name for themselves in the spirits community, offering impressive vintages from previously unknown estates.

MATT ADAMSON

Matt Adamson is a resident tattoo artist at the New York's acclaimed Kings Avenue Tattoo. With over a decade of experience, he has garnered a cult following for his interpretation on neo-traditional tattooing and his continued boundary-pushing style. Most recently, his designs garnered the attention of Tiffany & Co. where he collaborated with the jewelry giant to design a collection of hand-engraved crystal and glassware.
